

Inuit

Grade-3
St. Bonaventure

Homes

- Igloos are winter homes
- Igloos have many levels
- Summer house made of sod and stones

Food

- Mainly ate meat from seals
- Seal blubber was a treat
- Ate most of their meat raw because they had little or no wood for fires

Transportation

- A kayak was used in the summer
- A dog sled was used in the winter
- Snowmobiles are now used for winter travel

Examples of Transportation

The Inuit travel in many different ways. Kayaks can only be used in the summer. A umiak is a larger boat and it could hold ten people in it. Inuit travel in many interesting ways.

Clothing

- Made from animal skins
- Sewn by hand
- Kamiks are boots made of sealskin

Customs and Beliefs

- Spirit for the wind, the weather, the sun and the moon
- Community had a man or woman who had special powers
- Believed in powerful spirits that controlled nature